L&T COMMITTED TO HYDERABAD METRO RAIL PROJECT

We take this opportunity to update the current status of the prestigious Hyderabad Metro Rail Project:

- CMRS has completed the inspection and issued the certification for stretches between Nagole to Mettuguda & S R Nagar to Miyapur.
- Viaduct: Foundations: 59.05 Km; Piers: 56.61 Km; Span Erection: 47.66 Km & Track Work: 35.70 Km.
- Stations: 17 stations are completed in Stage 1 (Nagole to Mettuguda) & Stage 2 (S R Nagar to Miyapur), and work at 3 Interchange Stations (Ameerpet, MGBS & Parade Grounds) and other 30 Stations are in progress.
- Rolling Stock: All the 57 trains have arrived at the depots.
- ROB: Bharath Nagar Rail Over Bridge (ROB) is completed and work on the remaining 7 ROB's is in progress.

Overall 67% of the total work is completed till 30th Sept 2016, which by all standards is a speedy execution.

Working in crowded & difficult stretches like Sultan Bazaar area, is on brisk pace inspite of rains and festive season.

We reiterate our commitment to complete this prestigious project expeditiously with all the support and cooperation of Government of Telangana State and the people of Hyderabad.

Mr. S N Subrahmanyam, Deputy Managing Director & President, L&T & Non-Executive Chairman, L&T Metro Rail (Hyderabad) Limited stated, “The project is moving on the right track and L&T is committed to the project. Whole hearted support & cooperation from the Government of Telangana under the leadership of Hon’ble Chief Minister of Telangana, is fully there. City obstructions that crop up are being tracked and addressed at regular intervals at the highest level, to make sure that the momentum is not lost and the project is completed.”
