

AIMA Honours Mr A M Naik as ‘Outstanding Institution Builder’

The All India Management Association (AIMA) has conferred the ‘Outstanding Institution Builder Award’ on L&T Group Chairman Mr A M Naik. The award acknowledges Mr Naik’s stellar role in building L&T, transforming it and shaping it into its present shape.

The award was conferred at AIMA’s 11th Managing India Awards ceremony, held virtually on 22 September. An eloquent citation on Mr Naik was read out by sarod maestro Ustad Amjad Ali Khan, while the Union Minister for Road Transport & Highways Mr Nitin Gadkari conferred the award.

Accepting the award, Mr Naik said that the discipline of management was going through a period of severe challenge as the world attempts to balance the aspirations of growth within the prevailing constraints. He called for resilience, strength of purpose and resolve, while emphasising the importance of striving for inclusive growth.

AIMA is the apex body for management in India. For over 60 years now, it has been at the forefront of efforts to foster management excellence and leadership. It recognises achievers who have made a fundamental difference, creating an edge above peers for others to emulate.

Across the years, Mr Naik has been the recipient of several illustrious honours, including the Padma Vibhushan, Padma Bhushan, Gujarat Garima, the order of the Dannebrog (Danish knighthood). He has also been conferred many honorary doctorates as well as industry and media awards.

