Mint Confers Lifetime Achievement Award on AMN

L&T Group Chairman Mr AM Naik has been conferred the Mint Lifetime Achievement Award at India Investment Summit 2023 organised by prestigious financial newspaper, Mint, a part of HT Media. On Mr Naik's behalf, L&T CEO & MD Mr SN Subrahmanyan received the award at a star-studded ceremony in Mumbai on Friday, 17 March.

The award presentation was preceded by the screening of a 5-minute film on Mr Naik's life and achievements, to a high applause by the audience.

Joining in virtually, Union Minister of Road Transport & Highways Mr Nitin Gadkari reminisced about his long relationship with Mr Naik and L&T. Showering praise on Mr Naik for his immense contribution to India's industrial landscape, he said that the Mint Lifetime Achievement Award was "the appropriate award for the appropriate person".

Mr Subrahmanyan said that he felt privileged to receive the coveted award on behalf of the Group Chairman.

"This glittering trophy will feature among the most coveted awards that Mr Naik has earned over the years. In honouring Mr Naik, Mint is honouring the spirit of transformation and nation-building that has changed the face and future of L&T and the country," Mr Subrahmanyan said.

Mint has conferred the award on Mr Naik in recognition of his "accomplishments over a long career." Apart from being the L&T Group Chairman, Mr Naik also happens to be the Chairman of L&T Employee Trust which he founded in 2003.
