

L&T Conferred 'Caring Company Award' By World CSR Congress

L&T won the 'Caring Company Award' presented by the World CSR Congress for its sustained initiatives in reaching out to the underprivileged.

The Caring Company Award is presented to companies displaying exemplary corporate citizenship and commitment to create a truly cohesive society. The evaluation for the award was carried out by an independent jury panel and Council of Board Members of the World CSR Congress.

Mr. Ajit Singh received the Caring Company Award from Dr. Christoph Stückelberger (right) in Mumbai on February 18, 2013.

The award was presented at a ceremony during the World CSR Congress in Mumbai on February 17-18, 2013. Mr. Ajit Singh, EVP-Corporate Infrastructure and Services, received the award on behalf of Mr. K. Venkataramanan, CEO & MD, L&T, from Dr. Christoph Stückelberger, Executive Director and Founder, Globethics.net.

In 2012, L&T's social interventions reached out to over half a million beneficiaries across India providing access to healthcare, education and skill development. This award reaffirms L&T's position as a company committed to social development.