

Mr. A.M. Naik Ranked Asia's Top CEO in Infrastructure Sector by *Institutional Investor

Mr. R. Shankar Raman voted Best CFO

The prestigious Hong Kong-based magazine, Institutional Investor, has ranked our Chairman & Managing Director, Mr. A.M. Naik, as Asia's Best CEO in the Infrastructure Sector for 2012. Mr. Naik was voted to the top by both the 'Sell Side' and 'Buy Side' respondents to the 2012 All-Asia Executive Team survey conducted by the magazine. It affirms Mr. Naik's standing in the capital market among investors across the Asian continent. It confirms perceptions of Mr. Naik having done more to boost investor sentiment than others in his peer group.

In another significant honour, Mr. R. Shankar Raman was voted Best CFO in the survey.

L&T has secured multiple creditable rankings in the survey. The honours list as featured in the magazine is as follows:

- Best CEO - First Place - A.M. Naik - Nominated by the Sell Side
- Best CEO - First Place - A.M. Naik - Nominated by the Buy Side
- Best CFO - First Place - R. Shankar Raman - Nominated by the Sell Side
- Best Investor Relations - First Place - L&T - Nominated by the Sell Side
- Best Investor Relations Professional - First Place - Arnob Mondal, GM- Investor Relations, L&T - Nominated by the Sell Side
- Best Investor Relations Professional - Third Place - Arnob Mondal - Nominated by the Buy Side

The rankings are based on key performance attributes such as Industry Knowledge, Transparency of Financial Reporting & Disclosure and Credibility of the Team among others.