ICAI Bestows Top Honour on L&T CFO

Mr. Y.M. Deosthalee after receiving the trophy for the 'Business Achiever – Corporate' award for 2010.

The Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI) – the country's apex body of Chartered Accountants – has bestowed its highest honour, 'Business Achiever – Corporate' for the year 2010 on our CFO, Mr. Y.M. Deosthalee.

The award was presented to Mr. Deosthalee at a glittering function held at Kolkata on January 30, 2011.

Mr. Deosthalee was honoured by the ICAI for his outstanding contribution to business leadership as a finance professional. The institute saluted his role in providing strategic direction to the business of financial services, development projects and Information Technology of the L&T Group.

The award was decided upon by a high powered jury chaired by Mr. Adi Godrej.
