

May 15, 2010

L&T wins Corporate Wellness Award from Confederation of Indian Industry

The Confederation of Indian Industry (CII) has honoured L&T with its prestigious Corporate Wellness Award for 'Best Health Practices' in the manufacturing sector. The award was presented at the valedictory session of CII's National Conference & Annual Session, held in New Delhi, on May 12, 2010.

Dr. Satchidananda Mishra, Senior Medical Officer – Powai Medical Services, received the award on behalf of L&T from the

Dr. Satchidananda Mishra (right) receiving the award from Mr. Jyotiraditya Scindia (left) and Mr. Arun Yadav in New Delhi on May 12, 2010.

Chief Guest Mr. Jyotiraditya Scindia, Union Minister of State for Commerce and Industry, and the Guest of Honour Mr. Arun Yadav, Union Minister of State for Heavy Engineering & Public Enterprises.

L&T won this award on the strength of its outstanding endeavours in promoting workplace wellness and sustainable enhancement of health and productivity of its workforce.

The awards contest, that saw participation from 160 corporate houses and 24,109 corporate employees from across the country, was judged by an eminent panel of professionals from premier institutions like AIIMS, NIMHANS, Indian Olympic Association, Indian Association of Sports Medicine, and National Institute of Nutrition & Hygiene.