

ESP Wins IMC Ramkrishna Bajaj National Quality Award

The Electrical Standard Products (ESP) business unit of L&T's Electrical & Automation Operating Company (EAOC), at Powai and Ahmednagar campuses, has won the coveted IMC Ramkrishna Bajaj National Quality Award 2009.

The award ceremony was held in Mumbai on March 19, 2010, at the annual conference on

(Left to right) M/s. K.K. Shukla, A.G. Kale, S.C. Bhargava, P.K. Bajaj and Ajit Singh at the awards function with the trophy and certificates.

‘Making Quality Happen: Sharing of Best Practices by Award Winning Companies’. Earlier, Mr. R. N. Mukhija, President (Electrical & Electronics) & Member of Board, L&T, delivered a keynote address on ‘Innovation – A New Dimension of Quality’.

The award, comprising a glittering trophy and certificate, is recognition of ESP's commitment to achieving excellence in its journey towards becoming a world class organisation. Mr. S. C. Bhargava, Senior Executive Vice President, EAOC; Mr. Ajit Singh, Vice President, ESP; Mr. P. K. Bajaj, General Manager, ESP Manufacturing; Mr. A. G. Kale, General Manager, Quality; and Mr. K. K. Shukla, Joint General Manager, Ahmednagar Switchgear Works, received the award from the Chief Guest and Member of Rajya Sabha, Mr. Ashok S. Ganguly.

Mr. Ajit Singh said that the award was the recognition of efforts of the 2700 employees of Powai and Ahmednagar who have been on the journey to achieving excellence.

The award winners were selected by a distinguished panel of judges under the leadership of Mr. Deepak Parekh, non-executive Chairman of HDFC. Modelled on the Malcolm Baldrige National Quality Award (USA), the IMC RBNQA is one of India's highest awards for Quality and Business Excellence.