

February 13, 2012

Double Distinction for L&T Hydrocarbon

- KV Conferred 'Honorary Fellow' of IChemE
- Company Wins 'Silver Corporate Partner' Award

The Institution of Chemical Engineers (IChemE), U.K., the world's most reputed body in the chemical engineering space, has accorded an 'Honorary Fellow' of the institution to Mr. K. Venkataramanan, Member of the Board and President, L&T Hydrocarbon. In an equally rare recognition, IChemE has awarded 'Silver Corporate Partner' status to L&T Hydrocarbon. L&T is the first company in India, and the only one headquartered outside the U.K. to acquire this special status. The honours were conferred by a delegation comprising the apex leadership team of IChemE at Powai on February 11th.

While conferring honorary fellowship status, Sir William Wakeham, the President of IChemE, and Dr. David Brown, the Chief Executive, cited KV's passionate and far-reaching personal contribution to the cause of elevating professional standards in chemical engineering.

Sir William Wakeham confers KV Honorary Fellow of IChemE.

KV receives the Silver Corporate Partner Award from Dr. David Brown.

Accepting the honour, KV said implicit in the recognition of his personal efforts was an acknowledgement of the dedicated team comprising Mr. K. Ravindranath, Mr. S. Krishnan, Dr. Barun Chakrabarti, Dr. Pramod Solanki, Mr. Prashant Joshi and others for supporting him in this endeavour.