

October 15, 2009

L&T's Construction Division bags Top Honours at Construction World Awards

L&T secured top honours at the 7th Construction World Annual Awards 2009 in Mumbai on October 8, 2009.

L&T featured as one of 'India's Most Admired Companies' in the annual contest organised by Construction World, a leading trade journal.

L&T was in the limelight again, being ranked as the 'Largest & Most Profitable Construction Company.'

Mr. K.V. Rangaswami (left) receiving the award and certificate from Mr. Kamal Nath, Union Minister for Road Transport & Highways. Mr. Pratap Padode, Chief Editor - Construction World, is at centre.

As India's leading construction company, L&T has been consistently featured at the top of the rankings. This is the seventh year in succession that L&T has secured the award.

Mr. K.V. Rangaswami, Member Board and President (Construction), received the trophies and certificates from Mr. Kamal Nath, Union Minister for Road Transport & Highways, amidst a large gathering of leading players from the infrastructure and construction sector.