LARSEN & TOUBRO

October 1, 2010

ESP wins Asia-Pacific Quality Award

The Asia Pacific Quality Organisation (APQO) has conferred on ESP the International Asia-Pacific Quality Award (IAPQA). The award recognises the strong commitment to quality and customer focus of Electrical Standard Products (ESP) business unit.

The award was presented at APQO's 16th International Conference on Quality in Kathmandu, Nepal on September 17, 2010. Mr. A. G. Kale, Head, Quality Assurance & General Manager, ESP, received the award from the Chairman of APQO, Dr. Charles Aubrey II. ESP has won this award in the Large Manufacturing section.

Mr. A. G. Kale (right), who received the award and certificate for ESP, with Mr. Shan Ruprai, APQO President, and the APQO Chairman, Dr. Charles Aubrey II.

The contenders for IAPQA annual awards are judged on parameters like leadership, customer and market focus, analysis and knowledge management, process management and business results. This is the 10th year of the International Asia Pacific Quality Awards Process.

APQO is a non-profit organisation that serves as an umbrella group that brings together all of the leading quality professional societies from countries that border on the Pacific Ocean or are considered Asian / Pacific Rim nations.

After the coveted Ramkrishna Bajaj National Quality award secured in March 2010, this international award, once again proves the high quality standards that ESP maintains.