AMN Crosses 50-Year Milestone

Felicitated by APJ Abdul Kalam & Uddhav Thackeray

The former president of India, Dr. A.P.J. Abdul Kalam, and Shiv Sena Paksha Pramukh, Mr. Uddhav Thackeray, were among the many who felicitated L&T's Group Executive Chairman, Mr. A.M. Naik, on completing 50 years of devoted service in L&T. Members of the L&T Board and L&T-ites also participated in the felicitation function at the Powai Campus on March 23rd.

Speaking on the occasion, Dr. Kalam called Mr. Naik 'a role model of order and discipline and a remarkable individual with an extraordinary vision'. Drawing from his personal experiences of working with L&T in the years past, he recounted multiple instances which exemplified Mr. Naik's business and financial acumen, his entrepreneurial flair and a unique ability to channel emotion and energy into a constructive course of action.

Mr. Uddhav Thackeray extolled Mr. Naik's remarkable leadership abilities, and said that the care with which he served and protected L&T's and its employees' interests will serve as the high-water mark for business leaders around the world.

The event was beamed live to over 100 locations around the world.

At a separate felicitation function later in the evening, the Ambassador of Denmark, H.E. Freddy Svane, formally presented Mr. Naik with the Order of the Dannebrog - Knight First Class, bestowed by the Queen of Denmark. Mr. Naik also received a personal letter of greetings from the Queen.

A biopic centred around Mr. Naik's life and career offered an inspirational message on commitment to our country and our company.
