DR. A. ASHOK, IAS, COMMISSIONER OF LABOUR VISITS HYDERABAD METRO RAIL UPPAL DEPOT

Dr. A. Ashok, IAS, The Commissioner of Labour, Govt of Telangana was the Chief Guest at the Safety Valedictory Function organized by L&T Construction recently at the Hyderabad Metro Rail Uppal Depot along with Mr. V B Gadgil, Chief Executive & Managing Director, L&T Metro Rail (Hyderabad) Limited and Mr. C. Sankaralingam, Vice President & Task Force Leader, Hyderabad Metro Rail Project, L&T Construction.

Addressing the gathering, Dr. Ashok expressed unstinted pride as the Hyderabad Metro Rail becomes a special icon for Telangana. He applauded the workforce for their attentiveness in adhering to various safety instructions, practices, procedures and the safety parameters relentlessly. He said that Safety and Health parameters are Key Performance Indicators in Construction Sector, considering the quantum of complexity involved in this project.

He appreciated the role of the workforce and commended them for following the 'safety first' principles at site works. He further emphasized that while such metro rail is the fastest means of transportation, we must continue to be careful at all times in various construction activities. He shared spontaneous thoughts "Accidents don't happen but they are caused". He suggested to continue safety education to the workforce as every one is a safety person and it's a collective responsibility.

He made a special mention of the behavioral safety training and continuous development activities initiated by L&T. He appreciated the compliance of statutory, legal and workmen welfare provisions by active involvement and total commitment of the many senior leaders of the Project.

He also encouraged the efforts of the site team in conducting various medical health camps, a series of various mock drills on trauma, cardiac, electric shock, Stress, Swine flu, Anti-tobacco, air borne and water borne diseases, etc.

He gave away prizes to the workforce in the categories of Quiz competition, Poster competition, Slogan competition, Essay competition, Painting competition, Best Safety Workforce etc.
