

September 29, 2017

L&T wins ASSOCHAM's 'Responsible Organization Excellence Award' for CSR

L&T has been conferred the first prize in the private sector of the prestigious Responsible Organization Excellence Awards for Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) by the Associated Chambers of Commerce & Industry of India (ASSOCHAM).

The award was presented at the 9th Global CSR Summit of ASSOCHAM on September 27, 2017, at New Delhi, by Mr. Arjun Ram Meghwal, Hon'ble Minister of State for Finance & Corporate Affairs.

The award was conferred in the category of Education, Skill Development & Livelihood. L&T's CSR is centred on the theme of 'Building India's Social Infrastructure'. The skilling initiatives undertaken through L&T's flagship Construction Skills Training Institutes (CSTIs), which provide residential training to school dropouts and migrant labour, were lauded by the jury headed by Justice Mr. V.N. Khare, Former Chief Justice of India.

This award once again provides recognition and reinforcement to L&T's commitment towards 'Building India's Social Infrastructure' and reaching out to the most underserved segments through its innovative community development initiatives.

