

International Safety Award with Merit by British Safety Council

The International Safety Award is a globally acclaimed and coveted award given by the British Safety Council. It helps applaud the organizations who have shown the Best Practices in Health, Safety and Environment, across the globe. More than 500 organizations from all around the world send in their nominations each year for this coveted award

L&T Hydrocarbon Engineering won the International Safety Award with Merit in 2019 from British Safety Council for demonstration of the Company's Commitment to Health, Safety and Well being of workforce.

RIGHT: LTHE members receiving the award from the members of the British Safety