

National Safety Council of India award for GSFC Melamine Project

The National Safety Council of India (established under the Ministry of Labour, Government of India) awards the organizations across various domains for their meritorious performance in Occupational Health and Safety and their commitment to ensure continuous improvement in Health and Safety.

L&T Hydrocarbon Engineering has been awarded the Certificate of Appreciation by the National Safety Council of India, Mumbai in recognition for appreciable achievement in Occupational Safety & Health, shown during the successful completion of the Melamine project of Gujarat State Fertilizers and Chemicals (GSFC) Limited.

Certificate of Appreciation from National Safety Council of India