

February 2, 2021

L&T's Integrated Report Declared Winner

L&T's Integrated Report has been declared a winner in the Best Integrated Report category by the Social and Business Enterprise Responsible Awards & Summit (SABERA), supported by Grant Thornton Bharat.

The eminent jury, under the aegis of Siraj A Chaudhry, MD & CEO, National Collateral Management Services Limited (NCML), unanimously chose L&T for this award.

Announcing the award, SABERA stated that L&T has been scaling new heights responsibly and is helping to put India on the sustainable road to development.

“The integrated report of the company has been prepared as per the framework prescribed by the international Integrated Reporting Council and in accordance with GRI standards. They have also reported on the performance of all their capitals, with all the detailed disclosures relevant, showcasing their journey towards a sustainable growth,” SABERA said in the award citation video.

L&T's Integrated Report is the third consecutive integrated report and 13th consecutive year of sustainability disclosures for the company.

SABERA was curated with the intent to recognise and amplify the good around us, leaving no one behind in this journey of sustainable development.
